CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY

STINGER SPORTS

December 8, 1981

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION & ATHLETICS

INTRAMURALS

HOCKEY - Intramural hockey at Loyola closes out the first half of action in the Concordia competitive intramural program with games this week. The S.G.W. campus league ended play this past weekend. In all 37 teams and some 550 students are participating in the two hockey leagues.

DANCE - All other intramural programs closed out this past week. The Jazz Ballet class under instructress Susan Harford put on two performances last week. One at Loyola and one at Sir George. Both were well attended. Some 18 dance classes with over 250 students are operated at Concordia.

SWIMMING - A tentative agreement has been reached between the Department of Athletics and the Downtown Y.M.C.A. concerning swimming for Concordia students. Beginning in January 1982, Concordia students will once again have access to the Y.M.C.A. pool at times yet to be determined. Staff and faculty will not be included in this agreement.

INTERCOLLEGIATE

BASKETBALL - Last Friday evening the men's basketball team closed out a 2-9 first half with an 83-69 victory over Carleton. The Stingers return to action hosting the Concordia - London Life Centennial Tournament January 2nd, 3rd and 4th.

The women ended the first half with a 54-44 won over Brandon. Mike Hickey's club will be in the McMaster Tournament in Hamilton December 29th and 30th.

HOCKEY - Men's varsity hockey is at home tonight (December 8th) 7:30 p.m. against U.Q.T.R.. The Stingers play at Dartmouth Saturday evening (December 12th) and then break for Christmas. Concordia will host the MICRON Tournament January 8th and 9th, 1982.

The women lost 2-1 to John Abbott last Friday for their only loss of the season. This Friday the women play at Potsdam State. They return to action January 4th, 1982 at John Abbott.